Notice Administrator for U.S. District Court

Dear Investor:

You are listed as an investor in Veeco Instruments Inc. common stock. Enclosed is a notice about the settlement of a class action lawsuit called In re Veeco Instruments Inc. Securities Litigation. You may be eligible to claim a payment from the settlement, or you may want to act on other legal rights. Important facts are highlighted below and explained in the notice.

VEECO INSTRUMENTS INC. SECURITIES CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENT

- Security: Veeco Instruments Inc. common stock (CUSIP: 922417100)
- Time Period: April 26, 2004 through February 10, 2005 (inclusive)
- Settlement Amount: $5.5 million in cash (estimated average recovery $0.875 per share)
- Reasons for Settlement: Avoids costs and risks from continuing the lawsuit; pays money to investors like you; and releases Veeco from liability.
- If the Case had not Settled: There would have been a trial. The parties disagree on the liability and damages issues. (See Question 4 of the Notice for further explanation.)
- Attorneys' Fees and Expenses: Lawyers for investors will ask the Court for an award of attorneys' fees of 30% of the Settlement Fund, and, in addition, reimbursement of out-of-pocket expenses, including expert witness fees, in an amount not to exceed $775,000, which fees and expenses will affect the per share recovery by an estimated amount of $0.386 per share.

The attorneys' fees and expenses awarded by the Court will be paid separately out of the Settlement Fund, as fees and expenses for investigating the facts, litigating the case, and negotiating the settlement.

- Deadlines:

NOTICE OF PROPOSED SETTLEMENT OF CLASS ACTION

IF YOU PURCHASED THE SECURITIES OF VEECO INSTRUMENTS INC. ("VEECO") FROM APRIL 26, 2004 THROUGH FEBRUARY 10, 2005 (INCLUSIVE) ("CLASS PERIOD"), YOU COULD GET A PAYMENT FROM A CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENT.

A federal court authorized this notice. This is not a solicitation from a lawyer.

- The settlement will provide a settlement fund of $5.5 million in cash, plus interest (the "Settlement Fund"), to pay claims of investors who suffered damages from buying Veeco securities between April 26, 2004 and February 10, 2005, inclusive. Lead Plaintiff for the class estimates that there were approximately 6.3 million shares of Veeco common stock purchased during the class period that may have been damaged. Lead Plaintiff estimates that if claims are filed on behalf of 100% of the damaged shares, then the settlement represents an estimated average recovery of $0.875 per share of Veeco common stock. This recovery per share figure is an estimate and is before deduction of the cost of notice and administration of the settlement, attorneys' fees and out-of-pocket expenses, and reimbursement of costs and expenses to Lead Plaintiff for representation of the Class. Your actual recovery, if any, will vary depending on your purchase price and sale price, the dates of your purchase and/or sale and the number of shareholders that file Proof of Claim and Release forms. See Question 8 below for a more detailed explanation.

- Lead Plaintiff's Counsel intend to ask the Court to award them attorneys' fees of 30% of the Settlement Fund, along with reimbursement of out-of-pocket expenses, including expert witness fees, in an amount not to exceed $775,000. Lead Plaintiff's Counsel also intend to ask the Court to award reimbursement of costs and expenses to Lead Plaintiff, which expended considerable time and effort on the prosecution of this litigation and in the representation of the Class, in an amount not to exceed $16,089. If the Court awards 30% of the Settlement Fund as attorneys' fees, together with reimbursement of out-of-pocket expenses, the impact will affect the per damaged share recovery by an estimated amount of $0.386 per share. Lead Plaintiff's Counsel have expended considerable time and effort in the prosecution of this litigation on a contingent fee basis, and have advanced the expenses of the litigation in the expectation that if they were successful in obtaining a recovery for the Class they would be paid from such recovery. In this type of litigation, it is customary for plaintiff's counsel to be awarded a percentage of the Settlement Fund as their attorneys' fees.

The settlement resolves a lawsuit concerning whether, in the first three quarters of 2004, Veeco and certain of its officers misled investors by knowingly or recklessly misrepresenting and omitting material facts concerning the financial performance of Veeco as well as the Company's internal reporting financial and disclosure controls. The lawsuit alleges that as a result of these alleged misrepresentations, and omissions, the prices of Veeco securities during the Class Period were artificially inflated. The parties disagree on both liability and damages. The issues on which the parties disagree include (a) the amount by which the prices of Veeco securities were allegedly artificially inflated (if at all) during the Class Period; (b) the extent to which the various matters that Lead Plaintiff alleged were materially false or misleading influenced (if at all) the trading price of Veeco securities at various times during the Class Period; and (c) whether the statements made or facts allegedly omitted in violation of law were material or otherwise actionable under the federal securities laws. Lead Plaintiff's Counsel considered that there was a substantial risk that Lead Plaintiff and the Class might not have prevailed on all their claims and that there were risks that the decline in the price of Veeco securities could be attributed, in whole or in part, to other factors. Therefore, Lead Plaintiff and the Class could have recovered nothing or substantially less than the amount of the Settlement.

The Defendants deny that they are liable to Lead Plaintiff or the Class and deny that Lead Plaintiff or the Class have suffered any damages. Lead Plaintiff's Counsel believe this settlement is in the best interests of the Class considering the risks posed by further litigation. See Question 4 below for further explanation.

- Your legal rights are affected whether you act, or don't act. Read this notice carefully.

YOUR LEGAL RIGHTS AND OPTIONS IN THIS SETTLEMENT

SUBMIT A CLAIM FORM	The only way to get a payment from the Settlement Fund.
EXCLUDE YOURSELF	Receive no payment. This is the only option that allows you to ever be part of any other lawsuit against Veeco concerning the legal claims being released by this settlement.
OBJECT BUT REMAIN IN THE SETTLEMENT	Write to the Court about why you don't like the settlement.

GO TO A HEARING	A hearing will be held on November 2, 2007 and is open to the public. To speak in Court, however, you need to give advance written notice to the Court and to the parties.
DO NOTHING	Receive no payment. Give up your right to object to the settlement, or any part of it, or to request exclusion from the settlement.

- These rights and options – and the deadlines to exercise them – are explained in this notice.

- The Court in charge of this case still has to decide whether to approve the settlement. Payments will be made if the Court approves the settlement, after appeals are resolved if any are filed, and after the claims are processed. Please be patient.

- Further information regarding this settlement may be obtained by contacting Lead Plaintiff's Counsel, Sherrie R. Savett, Esquire and Phyllis M. Parker, Esquire, Berger & Montague, P.C., 1622 Locust Street, Philadelphia, PA 19103, telephone (215) 875-3000.

BASIC INFORMATION

1. Why did I receive this notice package?

The Court authorized this notice to be sent to you because you or someone in your family may have purchased Veeco securities between April 26, 2004 and February 10, 2005 (inclusive) (the "Class Period"). The Court in charge of the case is the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York and the case is known as In re Veeco Instruments Inc. Securities Litigation, Case No. 7:05-md-01695. The people who brought suit are called Lead Plaintiff. Lead Plaintiff and Class Representative is Steelworkers Pension Trust ("Steelworkers"). The company and individuals they sued - Veeco Instruments Inc., Edward H. Braun, John F. Rein, Jr., John P. Kiernan, and R. Michael Weiss - are called the Defendants. A prior notice advising you about this lawsuit was mailed to potential class members on June 1, 2007 and a summary notice about this lawsuit was published in the Wall Street Journal on June 8, 2007.

The Court authorized this notice to be sent to you because you have a right to know about the proposed settlement of a class action lawsuit, and about all of your options, before the Court decides whether to approve the settlement. If the Court approves the settlement, and resolves any objections that may be filed in opposition to the settlement, as explained below, and if any appeals are resolved, then an administrator appointed by the Court will distribute the payments that the settlement permits. You may track the progress of the settlement by visiting www.hrsclaimsadministration.com. This package explains the lawsuit, the settlement, your legal rights, what benefits are available, who is eligible for them, and how to obtain them.

2. What is this lawsuit about?

The lawsuit claims that Defendants issued false and misleading statements in Veeco's financial reports for the first, second and third quarters of 2004 (which the Company was forced to restate shortly after the Class Period) as well as in related press releases and during investor conference calls. The lawsuit also claims that certain of the Individual Defendants also issued false and misleading certificates of compliance with the Sarbanes-Oxley Act.

Specifically, the lawsuit claims that Veeco's financial statements, and Defendants' other public statements during the Class Period, overstated Veeco's pre-tax earnings by $10.2 million and concealed the unprofitability and true profit margins and accounting improprieties of Veeco's TurboDisc business, and that Defendants' public statements concealed the fact that TurboDisc had deficient or absent financial controls and that Veeco's financial statements could not be relied on by the investing public. The lawsuit alleges that Defendants concealed these facts, and failed to correct prior false statements made to the public, during the Class Period, and that these facts were first disclosed to the public on the morning of February 11, 2005. This lawsuit alleges that upon the announcement of this previously undisclosed material information, the price of Veeco stock dropped by more than 10%, thereby causing damages to Lead Plaintiff and the other members of the Class.

This lawsuit began on February 15, 2005, when the first of several class action lawsuits was filed in the Southern District of New York against Veeco Instruments Inc., Edward H. Braun and John F. Rein, Jr. Additional complaints were filed thereafter and assigned to the Honorable Colleen McMahon for consolidated pretrial proceedings. By Order dated October 12, 2005, the Court appointed Steelworkers as Lead Plaintiff and Berger & Montague, P.C. as Lead Counsel for the Class.

The Consolidated Amended Class Action Complaint (the "Complaint") filed on November 7, 2005 by Lead Plaintiff on behalf of the Class named additional Defendants John P. Kiernan and R. Michael Weiss. Defendants filed a motion to dismiss the Complaint on December 2, 2005. After extensive briefing, the Court denied Defendants' motion to dismiss in an Order dated March 21, 2006.

On November 7, 2005, Lead Plaintiff moved for certification of the Class. After depositions and extensive briefing, the Court granted Lead Plaintiff's motion and certified the Class by an Order dated March 21, 2006. The parties also engaged in extensive motion practice, in addition to the motion to dismiss and the class certification motion.

The parties also engaged in extensive fact discovery. Lead Plaintiff reviewed hundreds of thousands of pages of documents produced by Defendants and 26 third-parties, including Veeco's auditor Ernst & Young, Veeco's suppliers and customers, and investment analysts who covered Veeco during the Class Period. Lead Plaintiff conducted ten depositions, including the depositions of Individual Defendants Braun, Rein and Kiernan, and three Ernst & Young partners involved in auditing Veeco's financial statements before and during the Class Period. The parties also engaged in interrogatory discovery, and served and responded to interrogatories and requests for admission. In addition, the parties also conducted expert discovery, including exchanging expert reports of their respective accounting and damages experts, and conducting expert depositions.

The parties also completed preparation for trial, including filing and responding to numerous motions in limine (motions to exclude evidence), preparation of jury instructions, factual contentions and deposition designations and participating in a final pre-trial conference with the Court on June 28, 2007 in anticipation of the trial that was scheduled to commence on July 9, 2007.

The merits of the case and the issue of damages are sharply disputed. Defendants have denied and continue to deny each claim and contention alleged against them. Defendants have asserted at all times that they acted diligently to ensure that Veeco's financial statements were accurate, that the Company's disclosure controls were adequate, that the Company's testing, disclosures and other actions concerning its internal controls complied fully with applicable laws and regulations. Defendants have also asserted at all times that they acted diligently to detect any accounting errors and internal control deficiencies and that they disseminated information on those subjects to the public at the appropriate times. Defendants have also denied that they acted with the state of mind required for liability under the federal securities laws. Further, Defendants assert that if they were found liable the amount of the damages suffered by Lead Plaintiff and the Class Members, if any, is extremely limited.

Lead Plaintiff recognizes that both the merits of the action and the amount of damages are sharply disputed, and that a jury might find that the Defendants did not violate the securities laws, or did not cause damages, or that the damages were much less than those asserted by Lead Plaintiff.

3. Why is this a class action?

In a class action, one or more people called Class Representatives (in this case Steelworkers Pension Trust) sue on behalf of persons who have similar claims. All these persons and/or entities are referred to collectively as a Class, and are referred to individually as Class Members. Bringing a case, such as this one, as a class action allows adjudication of many similar claims of persons and entities that might be economically too small to bring in individual actions. One court resolves the issues for all Class Members, except for those who exclude themselves from the Class.

4. Why is there a settlement?

The Court did not decide in favor of Lead Plaintiff and the Class or Defendants. Instead, Lead Plaintiff and Defendants have agreed to settle the lawsuit. The parties retained the Honorable Nicholas H. Politan, United States District Judge (retired), as the mediator for this action. The settlement was the product of extensive arms-length negotiations, with the assistance of this respected mediator.

Lead Plaintiff has agreed to settle the lawsuit based on the risks that would be involved in a trial, and its conclusion that the proposed settlement is fair, reasonable and adequate, and serves the best interests of the Class Members. Counsel for Lead Plaintiff have determined that by settling, the cost and risks of a trial will be avoided, while at the same time providing substantial compensation to the Class. Lead Plaintiff and Lead Plaintiff's Counsel believe that the settlement is best for all Class Members.

As described above, Lead Plaintiff and Defendants do not agree regarding the merits of Lead Plaintiff's allegations with respect to liability or the average amount of damages per share, if any, that would be recoverable if Lead Plaintiff was to prevail on each claim asserted. The issues on which the parties disagree include: (1) whether Defendants made any false and misleading statements; (2) whether the statements made were materially false when made, or otherwise actionable under the federal securities laws; (3) whether, and at what point in time, Defendants had a duty to correct any prior false and misleading statements (4) whether Defendants made any false and misleading statements with the requisite intent; (5) the appropriate economic model for determining the amount by which the price of Veeco securities were allegedly artificially inflated (if at all) during the Class Period; (6) the extent to which the various matters that Lead Plaintiff alleged were materially false or misleading (if at all) influenced and artificially inflated (if at all) the trading price of Veeco securities at various times during the Class Period; (7) the extent to which external factors, such as general market conditions, influenced the trading price of Veeco securities at various times during the Class Period; and (8) whether, and to what extent, factors, other than the misrepresentations that Lead Plaintiff alleged, caused Veeco's stock price to drop on February 11, 2005.

Although Lead Plaintiff's Counsel were prepared to go to trial, and were confident in the merits of their case, Lead Plaintiff's Counsel recognize that trial is a risky proposition and Lead Plaintiff and the Class may not have prevailed on all of their claims. In addition, Lead Plaintiff's Counsel believe that this settlement provides a substantial recovery to the Class Members, and believe that they may not have obtained a greater recovery even if the case had gone to trial.

Defendants continue to deny liability, and deny that Lead Plaintiff and the Class Members were damaged. These disputes regarding both the merits of the Action and the damages would be subject to expert testimony, and, therefore, it would be impossible to predict with certainty which of the parties' arguments would find favor with the jury. In a trial, Lead Plaintiff could have recovered nothing or substantially less than the amount of the settlement. Further, even assuming that Lead Plaintiff could have won at trial, any verdict would inevitably be the subject of appeal, and the recovery to Class Members would have remained uncertain and been further delayed.

WHO IS IN THE SETTLEMENT?

5. How do I know if I am part of the settlement?

Judge McMahon decided that everyone who fits the following description is a Class Member: All persons who purchased Veeco securities between April 26, 2004 and February 10, 2005, inclusive (the "Class Period"). Judge McMahon also decided that Class Members who purchased Veeco stock during the Class Period which they either sold at a profit or retained past the point after the Class Period when the price of Veeco stock recovered to the price paid by them were not damaged by Defendants' alleged misrepresentations. See Question 6 for more information.

6. Are there exceptions to being included?

You are not a Class Member if you are a Defendant in this lawsuit. The Class also excludes members of the immediate family of each of the Individual Defendants, any parent, subsidiary, officer or director of Veeco, any entity in which any excluded person had a controlling interest, the legal representatives, heirs, successors and assigns of any excluded person. See Question 5 for more information.

Also, if you exclude yourself from the Class, as described below, or if you already excluded yourself after you received an earlier notice in this case, you are not a part of the Class. If one of your mutual funds owns Veeco securities, that alone does not make you a Class Member. You are a Class Member only if you purchased Veeco securities during the Class Period. Contact your broker to see if you hold or held Veeco securities on February 10, 2005.

To be a Member of the Class, you must have purchased Veeco securities during the Class Period. The U.S. Supreme Court has interpreted the federal law that forms the basis of the lawsuit as limiting damages to persons who sustained losses caused by the revelation of previously withheld information. As a practical matter, this means that only Members of the Class who held positions in Veeco securities at the close of business on February 10, 2005 may have sustained damages. If you did not hold any position in Veeco securities at the close of business on February 10, 2005, you were not "damaged" under the federal securities laws and cannot recover any money in this Action. In addition, see Question 5, above.

7. I'm still not sure if I am included.

If you are still not sure whether you are included in the Class, you may ask for free help by calling 1-800-768-8450 for more information. Alternatively, you may fill out and return the claim form attached to this notice, described in Question 10, to see if you qualify.

THE SETTLEMENT BENEFITS - WHAT YOU GET

8. What does the settlement provide?

The terms of the proposed settlement are summarized below, and the full settlement terms are contained in a Stipulation of Settlement (the "Stipulation") dated August 16, 2007. You can obtain a copy of the Stipulation by writing to Lead Plaintiff's Counsel: Sherrie R. Savett and Phyllis M. Parker, Berger & Montague, P.C., 1622 Locust Street, Philadelphia, PA, 19103-6365, Telephone: 215-875- 3000 or by visiting www.hrsclaimsadministration.com.

The proposed settlement calls for Defendants to create a settlement fund in the amount of $5.5 million in cash. Lead Plaintiff estimates that the average recovery per damaged share of Veeco common stock is $0.875 per share before the accrual of interest, the payment of taxes on accrued interest, and the deduction of Court-awarded attorneys' fees and out-of-pocket expenses, costs of notice and claims administration, and reimbursement of costs and expenses for Lead Plaintiff's representation of the Class. If you are a Class Member, you may receive more or less than this average amount depending on: 1) the number of valid claims submitted; 2) the price paid for the securities; 3) whether you sold your securities; and 4) the date and amount you received upon sale. For purposes of the settlement, your distribution from the Net Settlement Fund (the Settlement Fund less taxes owed, costs of notice and claims administration, attorneys' fees and out-of-pocket expenses as awarded by the Court, and reimbursement of costs and expenses for Lead Plaintiff's representation of the Class awarded by the Court) will be governed by the proposed Plan of Allocation described in this notice, or such other Plan of Allocation as may be approved by the Court.

HOW YOU GET A PAYMENT - SUBMITTING A CLAIM FORM

9. How can I obtain a payment?

To qualify for payment, you must submit a claim form ("Proof of Claim") to the Claims Administrator. A claim form is attached to this notice. You may also obtain a claim form on the Internet at www.hrsclaimsadministration.com. Read the instructions carefully, fill out the form, include all the required documents, sign it, and mail it to the address provided, postmarked no later than December 3, 2007 to the Claims Administrator as follows:

Veeco Instruments Inc. Securities Litigation
Heffler, Radetich & Saitta LLP
P.O. Box 59027
Philadelphia, PA 19102-9027

The Claims Administrator will process your claim and advise you if you are an "Authorized Claimant" - meaning that your claim satisfies the requirements approved by the Court.

10. When could I receive my payment?

The Court will hold a hearing on November 2, 2007 to decide whether to approve the settlement. Even if Judge McMahon approves the settlement, it may take more than a year before the Settlement Fund is distributed to the Class Members because there may be appeals that would delay the implementation of the settlement and resolving the appeals can take time, which can exceed a year. The other reason that it may take more than a year for the Settlement Fund to be distributed is that once the settlement has been approved, and any appeals are resolved, the Claims Administrator must process all of the Proof of Claim forms. The processing by itself is a very complicated process and will take many months.

Please be patient. You may track the progress of the settlement by visiting www.hrsclaimsadministration.com.

11. What am I giving up to receive a payment or stay in the Class?

Unless you exclude yourself by following the procedures outlined below, you will remain in the Class. That means that, upon the Effective Date, you will release all Settled Claims, against all Released Parties (as defined below). It also means that all of the Court's orders will apply to you and legally bind you.

"Released Parties" means Defendants named in the Action, including their predecessors, successors, subsidiaries, affiliates, and any past, present or future officers, directors, employees, agents, insurers, attorneys, partners, accountants, consultants, advisors and the heirs, executors, administrators, predecessors, successors, representatives or assigns of the foregoing.

"Settled Claims" shall mean all claims, debts, demands, rights or causes of action or liabilities whatsoever by Lead Plaintiff, on its own behalf and on behalf of the Class, against the Released Parties (including, but not limited to, any claims for damages, interest, attorneys' fees, expert or consulting fees, and any other costs, expenses or liability whatsoever, or injunctive, equitable or other relief), whether based on federal, state, local, statutory or common law or any other law, rule or regulation, whether fixed or contingent, accrued or un-accrued, liquidated or un-liquidated, at law or in equity, matured or un-matured, whether class or individual in nature, including both known claims and Unknown Claims (as defined below), (i) that have been asserted in this Action by Lead Plaintiff or the Class Members against any of the Released Parties, (ii) that have been or could have been asserted in any forum by Lead Plaintiff or the Class Members against any of the Released Parties which arise out of, relate in any way to or are based upon the allegations, transactions, facts, matters or occurrences, representations or omissions involved, set forth, or referred to in the Complaint and which relate to the purchase, acquisition, holding or sale of Veeco publicly-traded securities during the Class Period, or (iii) that have been or could have been asserted in this Action or any forum by the Class Members or any of them against any of the Released Parties, which arise out of or relate in any way to the defense or settlement of this Action.

"Unknown Claims" means any and all Settled Claims which Lead Plaintiff or any Class Member does not know or suspect to exist in his, her or its favor at the time of the release of the Released Parties, which if known by him, her or it might have affected his, her or its decision(s) with respect to the Settlement. With respect to any and all Settled Claims, the parties stipulate and agree that upon the Effective

Date, the Lead Plaintiff and the Defendants shall expressly waive, and each Class Member shall be deemed to have waived, and by operation of the Judgment shall have expressly waived, any and all provisions, rights and benefits conferred by any law of any state or territory of the United States, or principle of common law, which is similar, comparable, or equivalent to Cal. Civ. Code § 1542, which provides: "A general release does not extend to claims which the creditor does not know or suspect to exist in his or her favor at the time of executing the release, which if known by him or her must have materially affected his or her settlement with the debtor."

EXCLUDING YOURSELF FROM THE SETTLEMENT

If you do not want to receive a payment from this settlement, and you want to keep the right to sue or continue to sue Defendants on your own about the legal issues in this case, then you must take steps to get out of the Settlement. This is called excluding yourself – or is sometimes referred to as opting out of the Class.

12. How do I get out of the settlement?

To exclude yourself from the settlement, you must send a letter by mail saying that you want to be excluded from the Settlement in In re Veeco Instruments Inc. Securities Litigation, Case No. 7:05-md-01695. Be sure to include your name, address, telephone number, proof of the number of shares you purchased and sold during the Class Period, and your signature. Your exclusion request must be postmarked no later than October 19, 2007 and sent to the Claims Administrator as follows:

Veeco Instruments Inc. Securities Litigation
Heffler, Radetich & Saitta LLP
P.O. Box 59027
Philadelphia, PA 19102-9027

You cannot exclude yourself by phone or by e-mail. If you ask to be excluded, you will not receive a settlement payment, and you cannot object to the settlement. You will not be legally bound by anything that happens in this lawsuit. You may be able to sue (or continue to sue) Defendants in the future.

13. If I don't exclude myself, can I sue the Defendants for the claims being released in this settlement?

No. Unless you exclude yourself, you give up any right to sue the Defendants or the Released Parties for the claims that this settlement resolves. If you have a pending lawsuit, speak to your lawyer in that case immediately. You must exclude yourself from the Class to bring or to continue your own lawsuit. Remember, the exclusion deadline is October 19, 2007.

14. If I exclude myself, can I obtain money from this settlement?

No. If you exclude yourself, do not send in a claim form to ask for any money. But, if you exclude yourself, you may sue, continue to sue, or be part of a different lawsuit against Defendants.

THE LAWYERS REPRESENTING YOU

15. Do I have a lawyer in this case?

The Court appointed the law firm of Berger & Montague, P.C. to represent you and other Class Members. This law firm is called Lead Plaintiff's Counsel or Class Counsel. You will not be charged for these lawyers. If you want to be represented by your own lawyer, you may hire one at your own expense.

16. How will the lawyers be paid?

Lead Plaintiff's Counsel have expended considerable time and effort in the prosecution of this litigation on a contingent fee basis, and have advanced the expenses of the litigation, in the expectation that if they were successful in obtaining a recovery for the Class, they would be paid from such recovery. In this type of litigation, it is customary for counsel to be awarded a percentage of a settlement fund as their attorneys' fees and reimbursement of their out-of-pocket expenses. Therefore, Lead Plaintiff's Counsel will file a motion asking the Court at the Fairness Hearing (see Question 19, below) to make an award of attorneys' fees in an amount of thirty percent (30%) of the Settlement Fund and reimbursement of litigation expenses, including expert witness fees, not to exceed $775,000. The Court may award less than these amounts. These amounts will come out of the Settlement Fund. Defendants have stated that they take no position regarding these fees and expenses. If the Court awards 30% of the Settlement Fund as attorneys' fees and reimbursement of out-of-pocket expenses in an amount not to exceed $775,000, it will affect the per damaged share recovery by an estimated amount of $0.386 per share. In addition, the Class Representative will seek up to a total of $16,089 in payment of its costs and expenses, which, if approved by the Court, will be paid from the Settlement Fund. Defendants also have stated that they take no position regarding this request. The Court may award less than these amounts, and any amounts awarded by the Court will be paid out of the Gross Settlement Fund.

OBJECTING TO THE SETTLEMENT

17. How do I make any objections I may have to the settlement?

If you are a Class Member, you may object to the settlement, any part of the settlement, or the request for attorneys' fees and reimbursement of expenses. You may state why you think the Court should not approve any part of the Settlement. The Court will consider your views. To object, you must send a written objection stating that you object to the Settlement in In re Veeco Instruments Inc. Securities Litigation, Master File No. 7:05-md-001695. Be sure to include your name, address, telephone number, your signature, proof of the number of Veeco securities that you purchased and sold during the Class Period, and the reasons why you object to the Settlement or any part of the Settlement. Be sure to mail the objection to each of the three places stated below, postmarked no later than October 19, 2007:

---	---	--

18. What is the difference between objecting to the settlement and requesting exclusion from the settlement?

Objecting is simply telling the Court that you don't like something about the settlement.

You may object only if you stay in the Class. By excluding yourself from the settlement, you are stating that you don't want to be part of the Class. If you exclude yourself from the settlement, you have no basis to object because the case no longer affects you.

THE COURT'S FAIRNESS HEARING

The Court will hold a hearing to decide whether to approve the settlement. You may attend and you may ask to speak.

19. When and where will the Court decide whether to approve the settlement?

The Court will hold a hearing at _____.m. on November 2, 2007, at the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York, Courtroom 21B, United States Courthouse, 500 Pearl Street, New York, New York 10007. At this hearing the Court will consider whether the settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate. If there are objections, the Court will consider them. Judge McMahon will listen to Class Members (or their counsel) who have submitted written objections and written indication(s) of their intention to appear and speak at the hearing, as long as they are postmarked no later than October 19, 2007 and mailed to the three different places listed in the chart following Question 17, above. The Court may also decide how much to award Lead Plaintiff's Counsel for attorneys' fees and expenses and how much to award the Class Representative for reimbursement of its costs and expenses for representation of the Class. After the hearing, the Court will decide whether to approve the settlement. We do not know how long these decisions will take.

20. Do I have to come to the hearing?

No. Lead Plaintiff's Counsel will answer questions Judge McMahon may have. But, you are welcome to come at your own expense. If you send an objection, you don't have to come to Court to talk about it. As long as you mailed your written objection on time, the Court will consider it. You may also pay your own lawyer to attend to speak in support of any written objection that you mailed on time, but it is not necessary. You may do so as long as you have followed the instructions set forth in the answer to Question 21, below.

21. May I speak at the hearing?

If you are a Class Member and have submitted a written objection to the Settlement or the motion of Lead Plaintiff's Counsel for attorneys' fees and expenses and follow the instructions set out in response to Questions 17 and 19 above, you (or your counsel) may speak at the Fairness Hearing in support of your objection. To do so, along with your written objection, you must send a letter stating that it is your "Notice of Intention to Appear in In re Veeco Instruments Inc. Securities Litigation, Master File No. 7:05-md-001695." Be sure to include your name, address, telephone number, and your signature. Your Notice of Intention to Appear must be postmarked no later than October 19, 2007, and be sent to the Clerk of the Court, Lead Plaintiff's Counsel, and Defense Counsel, at the addresses listed in Question 17. You cannot speak at the hearing if you exclude yourself.

IF YOU DO NOTHING

22. What happens if I do nothing at all?

If you do nothing, you will not receive any money from the Settlement. But if you are a Member of the Class, unless you exclude yourself from the Settlement, you won't be able to start a lawsuit, continue with a lawsuit, or be part of any other lawsuit against Defendants about the legal issues in this case, ever again.

UNDERSTANDING YOUR PAYMENT - THE PLAN OF ALLOCATION

(You do not need to make any of these calculations yourself. The Claims Administrator will make all of these calculations for you.)

1. The $5,500,000 cash settlement amount and the interest earned thereon shall be the "Gross Settlement Fund." The Gross Settlement Fund, less all taxes, approved costs, fees and expenses (the "Net Settlement Fund") shall be distributed to members of the Class who submit acceptable Proofs of Claim ("Authorized Claimants").
2. The Net Settlement Fund will be allocated among the Authorized Claimants in accordance with this "Plan of Allocation." The amount so allocated to each Authorized Claimant constitutes and is referred to herein as the Authorized Claimant's "Payable Claim." The Plan of Allocation is based upon Lead Plaintiff's Counsel's assessment of the merits and relative strengths and weaknesses, including recoverable damages, of the claims of the members of the Class.
3. The Payable Claim will be calculated so that each Authorized Claimant shall receive, on a proportionate basis, that share of the Net Settlement Fund that the Authorized Claimant's Recognized Loss (as defined below) bears to the total Recognized Losses of all Authorized Claimants, subject to the further provisions of this Plan of Allocation set forth below.
4. The formula for Recognized Loss is based on the decline in the price of Veeco stock following the announcement prior to the opening of the market on February 11, 2005 that the Company expected to restate its financial statements for the first three quarters of 2004. The maximum damage that any Class Member suffered is set at $3.75/share, based on the drop in the price of Veeco common stock in the four trading days following that disclosure of accounting irregularities on February 11, 2005. Further, the Court ruled, on June 28, 2007, that no damages may be attributable to Defendants' alleged misrepresentations where a Class Member either sold his shares after the Class Period for a profit or held his shares of Veeco common stock past the point at which the price of Veeco common stock first recovered to the price at which the shares were purchased. The Plan of Allocation takes into consideration that (1) on February 17, 2005, Veeco common stock traded at $15.11 per share, (2) on August 3, 2005, Veeco common stock traded at $21.52 per share, (3) on April 21, 2006, Veeco common stock traded at $25.17 per share, and (4) on May 9, 2006, Veeco common stock traded at a price equal to, or greater than, any price at which Veeco common stock traded at during the Class Period. The Plan of Allocation takes into consideration the prices at which Veeco common stock traded on these dates and limits the Recognized Loss of Authorized Claimants accordingly.

5. An Authorized Claimant's Recognized Loss is determined by the date(s) the Authorized Claimant purchased or sold any of Veeco's securities. For shares of Veeco's common stock that were purchased on the open market from April 26, 2004 to February 10, 2005, inclusive, the Recognized Loss is as follows:

- (a) for shares of Veeco's common stock sold at a loss between February 11, 2005 and August 2, 2005, inclusive, the Recognized Loss shall be the smaller of (1) the difference between the purchase price and the sale price, (2) the difference between the purchase price and $15.11, or (3) $3.75/share;
- (b) for shares of Veeco's common stock sold at a loss between August 3, 2005 and April 20, 2006, inclusive, the Recognized Loss shall be the smaller of (1) the

- difference between the purchase price and the sale price, (2) the difference between the purchase price and $21.52, or (3) $3.75/share;
- (c) for shares of Veeco's common stock sold at a loss between April 21, 2006 and May 8, 2006, inclusive, the Recognized Loss shall be the smaller of (1) the difference between the purchase price and the sale price, (2) the difference between the purchase price and $25.17, or (3) $3.75/share;
 - (d) for shares of Veeco's common stock sold before February 11, 2005, the Recognized Loss shall be zero; and
 - (e) for shares of Veeco's common stock sold after May 8, 2006, the Recognized Loss shall be zero.
6. General Provisions Applicable to the Plan of Allocation:
- (a) For purposes of determining when shares of Veeco common stock purchased during the Class Period were sold, purchases and sales of Veeco shares will be matched, on a "first-in, first-out" ("FIFO") basis, by matching the first shares sold against any shares held as of April 23, 2004 (the last trading day prior to the start of the Class Period) and then on a FIFO basis against any additional shares purchased during the Class Period on the basis of the assumption that the first share purchased was the first share sold. Any sale of Veeco shares, during or after the Class Period, that results in a gain shall have Recognized Loss of zero and the gain will not be deducted from an Authorized Claimant's Recognized Loss on Veeco shares that, on a FIFO basis, were purchased during the Class Period and sold for a loss during or after the Class Period.
 - (b) The price per share, paid or received, shall be exclusive of all commissions, taxes and fees.

- (c) The date of purchase or sale of Veeco securities is the "contract" or "trade" date as distinguished from the "settlement date."
- (d) In the interest of economy, no payment will be made on any claims where the Payable Claim from the Net Settlement Fund would be $20 or less, but the Authorized Claimant will otherwise be bound by the final judgment entered by the Court.
- (e) If you inherited or received a gift of Veeco securities during the Class Period, that inheritance or gift is not considered a purchase of Veeco securities unless your ancestor or donor was the actual purchaser of Veeco securities during the Class Period. You, as a recipient of a gift or inheritance, and the original purchaser may not both file a claim with regard to the same Veeco securities. If both you and the donor (or you and your ancestor's estate) make such a claim, only the claim filed by the recipient (or heir) will be honored.
- (f) Shares "transferred into", "delivered into" or "received into" the Authorized Claimant's account, will not be considered as a purchase of shares unless the Authorized Claimant submits documentation demonstrating that the original purchase of these shares occurred during the Class Period. Also, shares purchased and subsequently "transferred out" or "delivered out" of the Authorized Claimant's account will not be considered part of the Authorized Claimant's claim, as the right to file for those shares belongs to the person or party receiving the shares.
- (g) The restrictions on computing Recognized Losses set out in the three bullet points below apply to all claims. As a practical matter, however, they apply primarily to certain transactions engaged in by sophisticated traders or certain corporate or institutional Authorized Claimants:

- "Short" sales will not be recognized for any amount of loss on the cover or purchase transaction, and no Recognized Loss will be computed for any such covering purchase transaction.
 - No Recognized Loss will be computed for any transactions in Veeco securities engaged in by market makers or specialists.
 - No Recognized Loss will be computed for any option premium paid or received where the Veeco securities were purchased or sold by reason of having exercised or been assigned an option.
- (h) Nothing in the either Plan of Allocation represents an admission by any of the Defendants that there is liability or damage of any kind as a result of the allegations in the Complaint or that the dollar amounts set forth in the Plan of Allocation reflect actual or potential damages to the Class.
- (i) Payment in the manner set forth above will be deemed conclusive compliance with the Stipulation as to all Authorized Claimants. All Members of the Class who fail to submit valid and timely Proofs of Claim will be barred from participating in the distribution of the Net Settlement Fund but otherwise will be bound by all of the terms of the Stipulation, including the terms of any final orders or judgments entered and the releases given to Defendants and others.
- (j) No Authorized Claimant shall have any claim against Lead Plaintiff, Lead Plaintiff's Counsel or the Claims Administrator, or any other agent designated by Lead Plaintiff's Counsel based on the distributions made substantially in accordance with the Stipulation, the Plan of Allocation, and further orders of Court. In addition, in the interest of achieving substantial justice, Lead Plaintiff's Counsel shall have the right, but not the obligation, to waive what they deem to be formal or technical defects in any Proofs of Claim filed.

Distributions will be made to Authorized Claimants after all claims have been processed and after the Court has finally approved the Settlement. If any funds remain in the Net Settlement Fund by reason of un-cashed distributions or otherwise, then, after the Claims Administrator has made reasonable and diligent efforts to have Class Members who are entitled to participate in the distribution of the Net Settlement Fund cash their distributions, any balance remaining in the Net Settlement Fund one (1) year after the initial distribution of such fund shall be re-distributed to Class Members who have cashed their initial distributions and who would receive at least $20 from such redistribution, after payment of any unpaid costs or fees incurred in administering the Net Settlement Fund for such re-distribution. If after six (6) months after such re-distribution any funds shall remain in the Net Settlement Fund, then such balance shall be contributed to non-sectarian, not-for-profit, 501(c)(3) organization(s) designated the Lead Plaintiff's Counsel.

Lead Plaintiff, Defendants, their respective counsel and all other Released Parties shall have no responsibility for or liability whatsoever for the investment or distribution of the Settlement Fund, the Net Settlement Fund, the Plan of Allocation or the determination, administration, calculation, or payment of any Proof of Claim or non-performance of the Claim Administrator, the payment or withholding of taxes owed by the Settlement Fund or any losses incurred in connection therewith.

SPECIAL NOTICE TO SECURITIES BROKERS AND OTHER NOMINEES

If you purchased Veeco securities during the Class Period as nominee for a beneficial owner, then within ten (10) days after you receive this Notice, you must either: (a) send a copy of this Notice and the accompanying Proof of Claim and Release by first class mail to all such beneficial owners; or (b) provide a list of the names and addresses of such beneficial owners to the Claims Administrator as follows:

Veeco Instruments Inc. Securities Litigation
Heffler, Radetich & Saitta LLP
P.O. Box 59027
Philadelphia, PA 19102-9027

If you chose option (a) above, you may request enough forms from the Claims Administrator (at no charge) to complete your mailing. You may seek reimbursement of your reasonable expenses actually incurred in complying with these directives, subject to approval of Lead Plaintiff's Counsel or the Court. All communications concerning this matter should be addressed to the Claims Administrator.
